EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment for the specification was given in Applicant's Arguments filed 21 June 2007, applicant's page 8, Remarks section.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment for the claims was given in a telephone interview with Donald Egan on 18 June 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Specification, as amended 21 June 2006, paragraph 33, line 3 is replaced with --is $\text{Al}_2(\text{SO}_4)_3 \cdot 14 \text{H}_2\text{O}$. Alum is also preferred because it tends to--.

In the Claims, an examiner's amendment to the Claims is attached in the form of a faxed listing of the Claims requested of Applicant.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record does not teach or suggest the method of producing acicular calcium sulfate alpha hemihydrate crystals with aluminum chloride, chlorine, or alum to an aspect ratio of at least 5:1.

Moreover, Juanarajs et al. (US Patent No. 3,835,219) teaches using sodium chloride (chlorine) or aluminum sulfate (alum) (col. 2, lines 24-59 and col. 3, lines 10-19) as a crystal habit modifier to exclude calcium sulfate hemihydrate (see col. 2, lines 17-20). Thus, it would have not been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to combine such crystal habit modifiers known to be used in a process of making soluble calcium sulfate anhydrite into a process of making acicular calcium sulfate alpha hemihydrate crystals since it would exclude such hemihydrate production.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
